Key Responsibilities:

Payroll & Benefits Administration

- Administer all aspects of the semi-monthly payroll process in an accurate and timely manner;
- Assist in the preparation of the annual payroll budget and quarterly forecast;
- Monitor, analyze and report on any payroll expense variances against budget;
- Administer and manage all group benefits plans from set-up to termination;
- Oversee the WCB process, from preparing and filing the quarterly / annual WCB reports for staff and contractors to updating internal processes and procedures;
- Prepare reports for benefit providers to ensure payments and reporting requirements are completed accurately and in a timely manner;

General Accounting & Other Administration

- Perform general ledger accounting for payroll and benefits and complete period-end working papers;
- Provide guidance to staff on payroll and benefit policies and procedures;
- Act as the first point of contact for key business relationships with payroll and benefit providers;
- Stay current and provide interpretation on all payroll requirements in accordance with the rules and regulations set out by the CRA and BC Employment Standards Act;
- Support the annual financial statement audit;
- Other duties and responsibilities as assigned.

Key Requirements:

- Post-Secondary qualification in Accounting or a related discipline;
- Advanced analytical, critical thinking and research skills with the ability to problem solve;
- Three (3) to five (5) years of Accounting, Payroll or equivalent experience required;
- Sound accounting knowledge, including accounting principles and practices;
- Previous experience in payroll processing with the ability to lead the payroll process as the subject matter expert is an asset;
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and presentation skills, both verbally and written;
- Ability to work collaboratively as a key member of a team and independently with minimum supervision;

- Meticulous attention to detail, refined organizational and time management skills.
