

COIN Competition Rules and Regulations

The COIN Competition (the “Competition”) is an examination comprised of forty (40) multiple-choice questions (the “Examination”) predominantly based on introductory financial literacy and accounting concepts, to be written on April 22, 2023 between 10:00am and 11:00am (the “Examination Date”).

The Competition is conducted by the Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia (“CPABC”) and is open to all individuals enrolled in secondary schools in the Province of British Columbia If the Student is under the age of majority in the Province of British Columbia (nineteen (19) years of age) at the time of registration in the Competition, the Student’s parent(s) or legal guardian(s) is/are required to provide CPABC with a parental consent which includes a declaration of eligibility, liability release and publicity/privacy release (the “Parental Consent”) no later than April 1st, 2023, at 12:00pm (the “Parental Consent Deadline”). A copy of the Parental Consent can be found at www.bccpa.ca/COIN. CPABC reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to contact a Student’s parent(s) or legal guardian(s) for the purpose of verifying their agreement on the Student’s behalf to the terms and conditions outlined in these Rules and Regulations. If CPABC does not receive the appropriate Parental Consent by the Parental Consent Deadline, the Student will not be eligible to participate in the Competition. Additional information about this Competition can be found on CPABC’s student website at www.bccpa.ca/COIN.
