a message from Sheila Nelson

CPABC Board Chair

To our graduates:

On behalf of the Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia, congratulations on reaching this memorable day!

To get here, you have demonstrated remarkable perseverance, confidence, and growth – studying diligently, completing a rigorous education program, and working hard to reach your objectives. You have tackled changes and challenges; many of you adapted to remote learning and hybrid work and marked important milestones virtually. Now the time has finally come when you can participate in these important activities in person – and what better way to celebrate your professional achievements than with your family and friends at Convocation!

When you transform yourself to become a CPA, you become a leader. You increase your skills, your leadership, and your value – you empower yourself. While your motivation to become a CPA is unique and your journey has been one of a kind, you are all united by a powerful goal to achieve your designation and serve as trusted advisors who advance business and society. As you go forward, you will find that your designation opens doors to many opportunities. This is just the start of an exciting career full of personal and professional growth.

Graduates, I encourage you to celebrate everything that you have worked so hard to accomplish. All the very best in the future.

Sincerely,

Sheila Nelson, CPA, CA

a message from The Honourable Anne Kang

Minister of Advanced Education and Skills Training

To all Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia's graduates:

I would like to offer my most enthusiastic congratulations to all students who have passed their Common Final Examination. This is an incredible accomplishment, and you should be very proud of the work you have done to reach this milestone.

As graduates, you are well on your way to a rewarding and well-paying career as Chartered Professional Accountants, equipping yourself with the skills and knowledge you need to succeed in your profession. Graduates become business leaders and innovators and join a global network of professionals from many sectors.

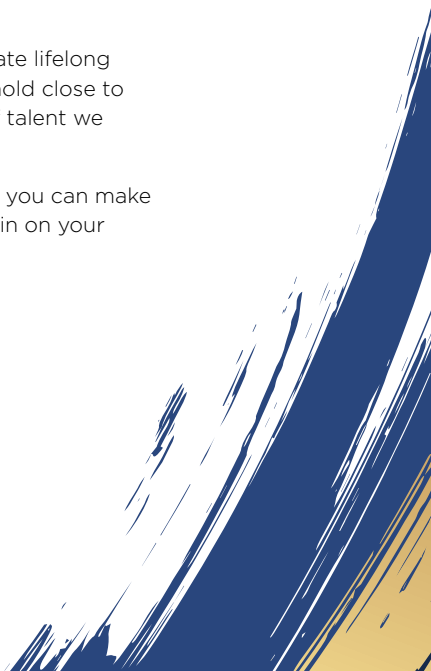

We are seeing significant growth here in B.C., and the opportunities for graduates right now and in the future are truly endless. This is a truly exciting time to enter the workforce and excel.

As a mother, a former teacher, a person of colour, and a passionate lifelong learner, empowering people through education is a value that I hold close to my heart. I'm always impressed and encouraged by the depth of talent we have right here in B.C., shown by all of you here today.

Be proud of what you've accomplished and go forward knowing you can make a difference. I wish you all the very best and congratulations again on your graduation.

Sincerely,

Honourable Anne Kang
