Advance your Career

Professional Development

Stay current with your learning and continue to develop in your career by attending CPABC's professional development (PD) seminars and programs on a variety of topics, including:

- Accounting & Assurance
- Ethics
- Information & Business Technology
- ESG
- Management & Personal Development
- Practice Management
- Taxation
- Wealth Management
- Work/life balance

Our seminars are offered in three formats: in person, virtual live, and on demand, so there's something for everyone's preferred learning format.

PD Nexus Days offer opportunities to hear from keynote speakers, self-select a variety of sessions to attend, and network with other members in a conference format.

Get specialized training through our Certificate and Executive Programs, which provide in-depth learning in specialized knowledge areas.

CPA Canada also offers a wealth of PD conferences, courses, and webinars, as well as business and accounting resources.

Discover hundreds of PD opportunities in-person, online, and on-demand (web & audio). You can potentially save up to 40% off seminar prices with PD Passport. Term runs from Sep 1 to Aug 31. Visit pd.bccpa.ca.

Financial Support

As a CPA, you have access to the CPABC's Benevolent Fund and the Chartered Professional Accountants' Education Foundation of BC.

Do you need financial assistance? Support is available

CPABC's Benevolent Fund provides short-term financial assistance to members in need.

If you think you, or another member, may benefit from the support of the CPABC Benevolent Fund, please contact Advisory Services or visit bccpa.ca/bf for more information.

The Chartered Professional Accountants' Education Foundation of BC (CPAEF) has a mandate to advance accounting education by supplying merit and need based awards to accounting students, sponsoring relevant and practical research, and stimulating the on-going educational experience of members and students.

CPAEF has bursaries and programs that add value to members for example:

- The CPABC Master's Degree Bursary for members that wish to pursue a relevant master's degree.
- The Doctoral Support Program provides forgivable loans to members pursuing doctoral studies.
- Our PD Pass for Academic Members provides professional development passport credits to members working as educators at accredited BC post-secondary institution

For more information visit bccpa.ca/cpaef

Connect & Grow your Network

CPABC is more than an accounting and business designation, it's a community. The relationships between our members, students, employers, and the community are what make this profession so dynamic.

Join a member forum

Forums bring together members with common areas of practice and interests (i.e., academic, construction, public practice). Join a member forum to meet CPAs and discuss topical issues.

Visit bccpa.ca/member-forums or email professionaladvisory@bccpa.ca.

Attend a local Chapter event

Attending Chapter events and activities is a great way to not only have fun and make a positive difference in your community, but also to expand your professional network and make new connections! You can attend both your home Chapter and other Chapter events.

The Chapters are always looking for new volunteers, get in touch if you'd like more information on how to get involved.

Learn more at bccpa.ca/chapters or email chapters@bccpa.ca.

What are Chapters?

There are 16 regional Chapters across BC that support their local CPA communities. Chapters are run by CPA volunteers who host a variety of networking events for members, including community volunteering, professional development workshops, and recreational events.

Recognize your Peers

Our peer-nominated Member Recognition Program recognizes CPAs who have made significant contributions to the profession and their community.

From new CPAs making positive impacts, to experienced CPAs being honoured for a lifetime of achievement, Member Recognition celebrates these members, who represent the best of the profession.

Volunteer for CPABC

If you are looking to broaden your network, and contribute to the profession and your community, consider volunteering with CPABC and make a difference through:

- Speaking with prospective students at events, as well as at high schools and post-secondary institutions
- Hosting events with your local Chapter
- Facilitating a financial literacy session
- Mentoring CPA candidates on their practical experience
- Joining one of CPABC's regulatory committees
- Volunteering at local tax clinics
- Participating in CPABC's indigenous initiatives

Volunteer opportunities can be found at bccpa.ca/volunteer. CPA Canada also has volunteer opportunities on numerous committees, councils, groups, and advisory boards.

Review your email preferences to ensure you're subscribed to receive the latest information from CPABC and CPA Canada. Manage your CPABC email preferences at services.bccpa.ca and your CPA Canada email preferences by logging into your account at cpacanada.ca.
