

Love being a CPA? Become a CPA Ambassador.

CPABC is looking for individuals who are PROUD and PASSIONATE about being a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA) and who want to share their CPA story to prospective students.

CPA Ambassadors are not only members, but also high school and post-secondary students who aspire to become a CPA. CPA Ambassadors engage with a diverse audience ranging from high school and post-secondary students, as well as working professionals, who are interested in changing careers or may hold an international degree/qualification and are relocating to British Columbia.

Why become a CPA Ambassador?

- Inspire future CPAs by sharing your CPA story
- Give back to your community, grow the profession, and strengthen CPA's reputation as an excellent career choice
- Network with other ambassadors, members, and prospective students

- No minimum hour requirement – contribute as much time as you can
- Receive specialized ambassador training
- Receive quarterly newsletters with updates on the CPABC Ambassador program and upcoming volunteer opportunities
- Be invited to ambassador appreciation events

How does CPABC support you as an Ambassador?

- Training on the new CPA Professional Education Program (PEP) and work experience requirements

What does CPABC expect from our Ambassadors?

- Share your enthusiasm for the CPA designation
- Engage with prospective students and share your CPA story
- Show prospective CPAs how much fun being a CPA can be! That's it!
