

CPAEF 2017 Accounting Academic Symposium Follow Up Questions

1. What are the ACAF National Examination Admission Requirements?

The admission requirements for ACAF are:

- Completion of the necessary prerequisite courses as outlined by the post-secondary institution (inclusive of the ACAF entry courses;
- Completion of the equivalent of all six ACAF technical courses; and
- Completion of the equivalent of the five ACAF applied courses with the following standard for achievement:
 - o A passing grade or 60%, whichever is higher, in each of the intermediate financial reporting entry courses, applied courses, and all the technical courses with the exception of information technology;
 - o A passing grade of 50%, whichever is higher, for all other entry courses, information technology, and business law

There is no stated requirement for an individual to hold a diploma nor is there any requirement for the individual to have completed any practical work experience.

2. How do I apply for the CPAEF Speaker Series Funding?

The CPAEF Board considers requests for funding towards a Speaker Series event throughout the year. The application form can be found on the CPAEF website: <https://www.bccpa.ca/CpaBc/media/CPABC/CPAEF/Helping%20Faculty/CPAEF-Speaker-Series-Application-Form.pdf>. A business school can apply for up to $2,500 in funding up to twice a year to support accounting faculty development.

3. How do I find out more about the CPA Education Foundation?

The CPAEF has its own website which can be found at: <https://www.bccpa.ca/cpaef/home/>. It maintains an active social media blog which highlights many of the activities of the CPAEF. This blog can be found at: <http://cpaefblog.bccpa.ca/>. And, if you want to follow on Twitter, please use #CPAEF and contribute to the ongoing dialogue.

4. When will the CPAEF PD Passport for Academic Members be available?

The application to apply for the CPAEF PD Passport for Academic members will be sent in the late summer. To receive this passport you must be a full time academic in BC (ie. making more than 51% of your income from teaching activities).
