Part 4 Letters of Support and Other Supporting Documents (maximum 10 pages)

This section must include letters of support attesting to the candidate's achievements. Although the number of letters is not important, nominators are encouraged to include at least two support letters. The quality of endorsements is key. The letters of support should adequately highlight the candidate's leadership and the exceptional nature of the candidate's performance. Letters are not required for each aspect of the candidate's career presented; rather, they should present evidence of specific aspects of the candidate's leadership ability and/or the exceptional nature of his/her performance.

Ideally, the letters would include the following:

1. A brief description of the organization, its work and role in the profession or the community.
2. The details of the nominee's involvement with the profession, including:

She also introduced three community initiatives into the annual chapter plan, being a community clean up event, supporting the food bank twice a year, and putting a CPABC Chapter team into the Ride to Conquer Cancer. The community initiatives resulted in 300 person-hours of volunteerism being provided by the Chapter into the local community."
 - The actions or duties the nominee took to achieve the accomplishment e.g., "When she was Vice Chair, Mary connected with the community contacts to develop the plan to begin community volunteerism, and did all the legwork to launch the three community programs. As Chair, she is now mentoring a young CPA who has taken on a new role on the Chapter Board, as the Community Chair."
 - The time commitment, if applicable
e.g., "Mary has contributed over 120 hours for each of the last five years in the roles that she has taken on for the Anytown Chapter. In the past three years, when introducing the Community activities, she volunteered an additional 100 hours annually to launch those programs."
 - The impact of the nominee's work on the organization
e.g., "By increasing the social networking events, Mary has increased the participation in the chapter. By introducing the Community volunteerism events, she has increased the public profile of the Anytown Chapter through the public recognition of the CPA Chapter teams who participated."
3. The details of the nominee's involvement with a community organization, including:
 - The role of the nominee

This not only increased the profile of the Foundation, but also resulting in the additional funding which was used to purchase two new vans every year for the past five years which has enabled the Foundation to help increase outpatient accessibility and purchase a portable ultrasound machine for the Hospital."
