

BECOME A CPABC

High School Ambassador

A volunteer leadership opportunity for high school students.
Small commitment; big rewards!

Who are CPABC High School Ambassadors?

CPABC High School Ambassadors are motivated and organized student leaders who love to learn and volunteer. You're also comfortable liaising with teachers, career counsellors, and fellow students as you update them on careers in business and accounting, as well as news from CPABC.

Why become a CPABC Ambassador?

- Gain career development skills, industry knowledge from working professionals
- Develop your public speaking, communication, and leadership skills
- Gain valuable volunteer experience with a highly respected professional organization
- Receive recognition for your volunteerism
- Connect with post-secondary student and designated CPA ambassadors at an appreciation event
- Excel as an ambassador for the opportunity to win the CPABC High School Ambassador of the Year award

How Do I Apply?

Complete the application form on the next page and describe in 60-100 words why you would make a great CPABC High School Ambassador. Submit both by email to ambassadors@bccpa.ca
